SECTION 1.0

GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 Description of Texas State Technical College

Texas State Technical College (“TSTC”) a state-supported two-year technical college and is the state’s largest provider of technical education. TSTC was originally established in 1965 as the James Connally Technical Institute (JCTI), a two year college in the Texas A&M University System designed to meet the state’s evolving workforce needs. In 1969, the State of Texas gained ownership of James Connally Air Force Base and renamed the college Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI), which became a separate state agency with its own Board of Regents, appointed by the governor. TSTC been continuously accredited by SACS-COC as a Level I institution since 1968. The college is an open enrollment institution with a full-time equivalent enrollment of approximately 12,000. In contrast with Texas’s regionally-focused community colleges, TSTC has a statewide role and mission with a legislative mandate to focus specifically on highly specialized, advanced, and emerging technical and vocational areas leading to certificates or associate degrees.

In 2015, the college was granted single-accreditation status from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, the regional body for the accreditation of degree-granting higher education institutions in the Southern states. The college central administration is located in Waco, Texas, the site of the flagship campus. The technical college system services students throughout the state of Texas at the following campuses located in Abilene, Breckenridge, Brownwood, Fort Bend County, Harlingen, Marshall, North Texas (Red Oak), Sweetwater, Waco, and Williamson County.

2.2 Project Timeline Required

The vendor shall supply an implementation schedule for the project. The pick-to-light system will need to be completed, delivered, and installed at the Texas State Technical College North Texas Campus no later than April 30, 2018.

2.3 Scope of Work

Texas State Technical College System is soliciting detailed proposals from qualified firms for a pick-to-light system with server hardware and software. This pick-to-light system will be used by students as part of TSTC's Logistics Technology Training Program. The pick-to-light system should provide students with experience utilizing it in a distribution environment. The pick-to-light system will be used to both accelerate training and to "test-out" students already possessing these picking competencies. The pick-to-light system will be delivered and stationed at the Texas State Technical College North Texas Campus in Red Oak, TX.

Components of the pick-to-light system should include the following:

2.3.1 System Design

- Comprised of two (2) 5-foot wide bays of flow-rack. Each bay of flow-rack will have three (3) shelves, and each shelf will contain four (4) lanes of product. This layout will provide an overall total of 24 pick-to-light product locations.
- Each pick location will utilize a standard 4-digit red light module with short-pick capabilities.

- A 12-character message display with a 7-color indicator light will be provided for each bay of rack in this system to be used as bay displays. These will be conveniently mounted in the available space between location modules on an upper-level picking shelf in each bay.
- One (1) corded handheld barcode scanner will be included with this system. It will be used to identify the picking container order, activate the appropriate lights within the picking zone, and allow pickers to log in and out of the system.
- The system should include all necessary hardware and software to make the system operational. Installation will be done by TSTC.
- The vendor shall provide remote telephone-based engineering start-up support for up to 8-hours to assist with system checkout and help resolve any start-up issues that may arise.

2.3.2 Host Interface

- No actual warehouse management system will be available to pass picking order requirements down to the pick-to-light system. Therefore, no true host interface will be involved.
- To provide orders for picking, this system will be provided with a Sample Order Generator utility that can be used to create sample orders. This tool provides the flexibility to generate sample orders that incorporate any of a variety of special requirements that can be used to demonstrate the versatility of the standard pick-to-light system hardware and software.
- A fixed set of repeatable orders can also be created and saved that will allow students to repeatedly explore different picking, slotting, and ergonomic techniques, and measure their impact on throughput and productivity.

2.3.3 Order Initiation

- Orders received from the host system will be prepared so that they are immediately ready to pick. The host system will print all necessary labels or barcodes which will contain a unique identifier that will be linked to the Pick order number.

2.3.4 Picking Process

- After optionally logging in to the system, the picker in the first zone will scan an order barcode to begin picking. All lights for locations requiring picks in this zone will light and display the required quantity. All bay displays within the zone will show the right most portion of the order number. The picker will pick the quantity of products required and press the confirm buttons. When all picks within the zone have been completed, all bay displays within the zone return to the idle indication, or can be configured to notify the picker to pass the order to the next zone.

- Picking in subsequent zones can be initiated by pressing a lighted bay display to activate the lights at all locations within that zone that have required picks, and confirming that the displayed order number matches the order number information for the current picking container. The picking process then continues as described above.

2.3.5 Work Zone Planning

- The system shall utilize a work zone concept to organize the pick-and-pass process. The user will be able to divide each line into any number of work zones, dependent upon the number of pickers available and the anticipated workload. For example, these could include a 6-picker plan, 4-picker plan, Friday plan, holiday plan, etc. This powerful feature will allow the Customer to easily manage line-staffing requirements to meet their needs.

2.3.6 Shorting an Order

- A means will be provided so that the system's displayed digit's original value can be adjusted down to the quantity that is actually available for picking.

2.3.7 Out of Stock Conditions

- The system shall include the functionality that allows any location to be placed into a Stock Status of Permanently Out when no inventory is currently available.

2.3.8 No Picks in a Zone

- Should a picking container be launched in a zone in which there are no picks required, the bay display will show a message indicating that there are NO PICKS within the zone. The picker will confirm the condition and pass the picking container to the next zone.

2.3.9 Completing an Order

- The user shall be able to configure any or all zones to be designated as "exit zones", where a completed order can exit the line.

2.3.10 Adding a Location

- The system shall have the capability to add a new location to the system.

2.3.11 Operator Tracking

- All picks within a zone are tracked to the operator logged into that zone.
- Standard Features and Functionality
- Designed for daily use to monitor and manage the pick-to-light system, the following management functionality shall be provided:
 - Managing Orders & Boxes – Screens are provided that allow an authorized Supervisor or user to select, prioritize, change, or delete

 - System Diagnostics – The system shall include screens that can be used to isolate and troubleshoot issues within the system. This functionality can be performed at several different levels to avoid disruption of ongoing operations elsewhere in the system.
- A Management Console shall be provided for managing and configuring the system. It shall provide complete control over all aspects the system. Intended for in-depth use by system administrators, the Management Console shall be the primary tool used to make changes to key system design and operational configurations.
 - Standard file folders include Operations, Pick Results, Facility, System, and Messaging System.
 - The Operations folder includes screens used to manage Employees, view system logs, manage Waves, Orders, Boxes, etc., view current Zone settings, log Employees in and out of the system, and maintain Product-to-Location relationships.
 - The Pick Results folder contains screens for accessing system reports and monitoring system productivity at multiple functional levels.
 - The Facility folder includes screens for maintaining User and Group level security settings, performing system Diagnostics, managing all aspects of the system layout and configuration, maintaining Workplans to manage labor deployment and adjust for varying workloads, configuring shift timings used in productivity tracking, and defining characteristics used in the trait capture process.

- c. Payment of Debt or Delinquency to the State. Pursuant to Sections 2107.008 and 2252.903, Texas Government Code, Contractor agrees that any payments owing to Contractor under the Contract may be applied directly toward any debt or delinquency that Contractor owes the State of Texas or any agency of the State of Texas regardless of when it arises, until such debt or delinquency is paid in full.
- d. State Auditor's Office. Contractor understands that acceptance of funds under the Contract constitutes acceptance of the authority of the Texas State Auditor's Office, or any successor agency (collectively, "Auditor"), to conduct an audit or investigation in connection with those funds pursuant to Sections 51.9335(c), 73.115(c) and 74.008(c), Texas Education Code. - i. Loss of Funding. Performance by TSTC under the Agreement may be dependent upon the appropriation and allotment of funds by the Texas State Legislature (the "Legislature") and/or allocation of funds by the Board of Regents of Texas State Technical College System (the "Board"). If the Legislature fails to appropriate or allot the necessary funds, or the Board fails to allocate the necessary funds, then TSTC will issue written notice to Contractor and TSTC may terminate the Agreement without further duty or obligation hereunder.
